

- Reducing emissions from existing buses and introducing electric/hybrid vehicles on new routes;
- Innovative and new incentives to encourage city centre residents to adopt lifestyles with a low environmental impact;
- Production of an Air Quality Management Plan that will focus on parking, enhancing public transport and improving facilities for walking and cycling within a central zone of the city;
- Evaluating the success of the project through pollution monitoring and Health Impact Assessments;
- The city of Suceava in Romania are fitting buses and cars with particulate filters, purchasing LPG cars and producing a Local Transport Plan;
- The town of Potenza in Italy aim to introduce a Limited Traffic Zone and public information services.

